

M. Ibrahim GHAFOORI, ACPIS Researcher

Afghanistan Center for Peace and International Studies

Within 26 years of diplomatic career, M. Ibrahim Ghafoori has participated in over 200 conferences, training courses, and scientific overseas visits. Besides his diplomatic career, Mr. Ghafoori worked at the Institute of Policy Studies and teaches the Uzbek language in Pakistan. He also works at the BBC monitoring Desk in Uzbekistan.

Mr. Ghafoori got his B.A (Honor) in Comparative Religion, from the International Islamic University, Islamabad, Pakistan, and a Master's in International Relations from the Global Open University, Nagaland, India.

- 2019 to 2020, Head of Afghanistan Mission to Bulgaria;
- 2017 to 2018, Deputy Director of UN and International Department, MoFA, Afghanistan;
- 2012 to 2016, Director of Afghanistan in SAARC, Kathmandu, Nepal;
- 2010 to 2011, Deputy Director of the UN and International Organizations department at MoFA, Afghanistan;
- 2006 to 2009, Head of the Afghanistan mission at the OIC in Jeddah, Saudi Arabia;
- 2004 to 2005, Acting Director of the UN and International Organizations' department, at MoFA, Afghanistan.

Mr. Ghafoori's native language is Uzbeki, and besides Farsi and Pashtu, he speaks English, and Arabic and can communicate in Turkish, Russian, and Urdu languages.