

Mirwais QADERI, ACPIS Researcher
Afghanistan Center for Peace and International Studies

Mirwais Qaderi began his career with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Islamic Republic of Afghanistan (MFA) in 2012.

2019 to 2021, Served as the Deputy Director General, Disk Officer for Security Cooperation (NATO & OSCE) at the General Directorate of Security Cooperation and Border Affairs.

2016 to 2019, Diplomat at the Embassy and Permanent Mission of Afghanistan in Geneva-Switzerland.

During his tenure, completed a year-long training course at the Ministry's Institute of Diplomacy and participated in various capacity-building programs and international meetings in countries including Egypt, the Netherlands, Belgium, Germany, Tajikistan, Kyrgyzstan, and Italy.

He also presented Statements on behalf of Afghanistan at the UN Human Rights Council and other related sessions at the International Organizations in Geneva.

Mr. Qaderi secured a fellowship with Global Rights: Partners for Justice in January 2011, where he gained practical knowledge of the Afghan legal system by assisting lawyers across various case types.

He was Born in September 1990 and spent his early years in Kapisa province. He graduated from Al-Beroni University with a degree in Law and Political Science in 2011.