

Ahmad Shekib MOSTAGHNI, ACPIS Researcher

Afghanistan Center for Peace and International Studies

With over two decades of experience in journalism, strategic communication, and public diplomacy, Mr. Mostaghni has played a pivotal role in advancing Afghanistan's diplomatic and communication efforts on the international stage.

Mr. Mostaghni's extensive career in public service began in 2002, where he worked in various strategic communication capacities, including as a Project Assistant for a BBC World Service Trust training project, as Director of Public Outreach at the Independent Elections Commission, and as Deputy Spokesperson at the Ministry of Interior. Mostaghni also held key roles in the USAID-Afghanistan Civil Service Support Project, where he served as a Change Management Advisor and National Training Director, contributing to significant reforms in Afghanistan's civil service sector.

2018 to 2021, Counselor and Deputy Head of Mission at the Embassy of Afghanistan in Madrid;

2014 to 2018, Spokesman and Director General of Communication, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Afghanistan.

Mr. Ahmad Shekib Mostaghni holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Sudarshan College of Management and Research in Pune, India, and earned a Master's degree in International Relations and Diplomacy from Alfonso X el Sabio University in Madrid in 2020. Mostaghni is married and is a proud father of four children. In addition to Persian and Pashto, he is fluent in English.